Welcome again to Marlboro country

FOLLOWING THE SUCCESS of the Marlboro Southern last year when large crowds witnessed some top class racing, we at Marlboro are pleased to announce that we will be sponsoring the series again in 1976.

The event is, once more, open to riders from Kings Lynn, Ipswich, Reading, Wimbledon, Exeter, Hackney, Poole and White City, and will provide stimulating sport for all concerned. Each track will stage a qualifying round with the top sixteen scorers going through to an all star final to be staged at Reading Speedway on Sunday, June 20 at 3.30 p.m.

Marlboro first entered speedway sponsorship in 1974 with stagings at Hackney and Poole. In 1975 our involvement was much more widespread with the sponsorship of the Marlboro Southern involving seven qualifying rounds and one final.

This year we are expanding even further with the sponsorship of the Marlboro Southern again (8 qualifying rounds and a final) and the Marlboro Midland (6 qualifying rounds and a final). We are certainly looking forward to some very exciting racing throughout the season.

We will be selling Marlboro Speedway T-Shirts at all circuits at the very special price of £1.00, and will be giving away free Marlboro stickers. You will also be able to sample a Marlboro cigarette, and if you buy 40 you will receive a free book of Marlboro Matches.

Finally I would like to wish you enjoyable racing tonight, and hope that we meet again at the Marlboro Southern Final on Sunday, June 20 at Reading.

George Mackin,
Sales Director, Philip Morris & Co. Ltd.

Wimbledon Scene

From the Manager's Desk

TONIGHT WE feel very proud to welcome not only one but two major sponsors of our sport, Marlboro, of course, are sponsoring the Southern Riders' Championship (holder Tommy Jansson) and Standard Motorists Centres the Golden Helmet (holder Tommy Jansson.

We warmly welcome Mr. Mackin, Sales Director and his party from Marlboro and thank them for their support. And also Mr. Geoff Traves, Advertisement Director and Mr. Alan England, Advertisement Manager, of Standard Motorists Centres.

The winner of tonight's round of the Marlboro Southern will receive a rally jacket, £25 and 200 cigarettes, second 200 Marlboro, third 200 Marlboro.

Anyone who just reads the scoreline of speedway matches will certainly not know what a terrific match we had against Halifax last week. The 48—30 results suggests an easy match . . . but what we witnessed was some of the best racing seen here in years.

The Hines-Pusey battles were classics in their own right but, sorry to say, that was the end of racing for the week. At Coventry on a super-slick track (or gaters' paradise to give it a trade name) passing was at a minimum. Our in-form riders, having already taking a rider replacement outing, were reluctant to go out again as tactical substitutes, mainly because of the sudden heat-wave and the slick track could have cost them a blown up engine.

Most riders had already put larger jets in their carbs, to start the meeting, but the toll for the night was still three blown up engines between the 14 riders and at nearly £500 a piece that's certainly paying for our sunshine.

During the past month our search for a third heat leader has met with many snags. Illa Teromaa's brother Pepe had a trial during last week's second half and showed great promise but he tells me that he would only be available until the end of August, which doesn't seem to be the answer. But one ray of sunshine: Tommy's brother Bo, who pledged himself to the Dons next season, now he feels he could do justice to the team this year . . . if he can get the necessary permission to come over.

No meeting here at Plough Lane next week—the team are away at Sheffield on Thursday, while on the same night our juniors will be battling it out at Crayford.

Late news: Tommy Jansson won his world championship round in Sweden last Sunday with 15 points. Qualifiers for the final (with seeded Anders Michanek): Tommy Jansson, Hasse Holmkvist, Christer Sjosten, Soren Karlsson, Lars Andersson, Lars Jansson, Bo Wirebrand, Per Ake Gerharesson, Tommy Johansson, Sven Karlsson, Bernt Persson, Tommy Nilsson, Soren Sjosten, Bo Jansson Bengt Jansson.

Rising to the occasion

BY PHILIP RISING

COMPREHENSIVE RECORDS books have never been very plentiful on the speedway market and, as a journalist and fan, I have for long craved for an extensive Who's Who of riders in the sport. The inclusion of a riders' biographical section in "Ivan Mauger's Speedway Extravaganza" was as welcome to me as food to a starving man but Ivan and his co-editor, Peter Oakes, have now gone a stage further.

Now available is the "Who's Who of World Speedway", compiled by Ivan and Peter and published by Studio Publications at a bargain £1.50p. Speedway riders from all corners of the globe are listed, with their full international and domestic records. Quite simply it is a "must" for any speedway nut such as myself and I can envisage thousands adding "Who's Who of World Speedway" to their libraries without delay.

The Champions Book of Speedway no. 7, edited by Richard Bott, and published by Stanley Paul at £2.45p is also on sale now. The Champions Book has proved a good seller over the years and though its format looks a little old-fashioned there is plenty to read and enjoy.

Contributors include Ole Olsen, Peter Collins, John Louis, Tom Owen, Joe Owen, Michael Lee and John Berry with pictures from Mike Patrick, Alf Weedon and Wright Wood among others. Dick Bott is a top line journalist (on the staff of the Sunday Express in Manchester) with a good speedway background. Regular devotees of the Champions book will want to add number seven to their collection while others surely will join the fold this time round.

Both books can be purchased here at Wimbledon from Eddie, your friendly seller outside the grandstand entrance. And you'll find plenty of other goodies there too.

Standard Motorists' Centres

STANDARD MOTORISTS' CENTRES, the country-wide network of retailing outlets specialising in the cut-price fitting of tyres and exhuasts, are this year sponsoring the Golden Helmet Championship.

This is Standard's first venture into sponsorship, and they have chosen our sport, Speedway, which as the second fastest growing sport, gives them a possible exposure to the many thousands of motorists who support Speedway each week.

They have a great ambassador at Standard as part of their management team, the man in charge of their Chesham shop is none other than Tommy Price, who was the first Englishman to ever win the World Speedway Championship in 1949, when he was the captain not only of the Wembley Lions, but had been selected to captain the English Test Team.

Tommy himself competed against the famous Jack Parker, for the Golden Helmet on two occasions, but although winning almost every other top prize that the sport had to offer, failed to get his hands on this famous trophy until this year, when to the delight of the fans at Swindon, he took the holder at the time, Martin Ashby, for a lap on his own track bike to show supporters the Helmet, and at Cradley over the Easter Holiday, made the presentation to the successful challenger, Tommy Jansson of Wimbledon and Sweden, who won in the third race of the deciding leg, a really exciting series of races!

Standard Motorists' Centres chain of outlets, some of which include cut-price spares and accessory stoves, has been formed by the amalgamation of several successful localised businesses which are probably still better known under their old trading names, such as Hadley's in the Midlands, Shortis in East Anglia, Freefit on the South Coast, and so on.

By whichever name you know them, Standard offer a guarantee of satisfaction on all parts and workmanship, and each depot can boast it's dependence on low pricing coupled with top-notch service.

Supporters Club News

WE WERE delighted with the response to our quiz in the programmes of April 19 and 22. We had to chuckle at the answer so many of you gave to question No.3 "An evasive Hawk". How many of you were being funny when you answered 'Christer Lofqvist' we shall never know; but we did warn you the clues were all puns of the riders' names. Below you will find the answers and tonight we can announce that the lucky winner of a season ticket to Wimbledon Speedway valid for all meetings from now to October was: Mr. Peter Tuck (Membership No. 526), 147 Sherwood Park Road, Mitcham, Surrey. Congratulations to Peter on his success and many thanks to the rest of you for taking part.

MICHAEL'S MINI-BUS

We really must mention Mickie Hatfield, a staunch supporter of the "Dons" and a very good friend of the supporters club. As sometimes happens, we recently only had twelve bookings for our trip to Hull. Thanks to Michael, we did not cancel it, as he offered to take our supporters at the bare running cost, at least half the price we would have paid anywhere else. So keen is Mick on his speedway he even turned down a good job on the same day at some cost to himself so as not to disappoint the supporters. He runs his own business and has two twelve seater licensed mini-buses for hire. Should you at some time in the future need to hire a mini-bus for any occasion, how about giving him a try. You'll find his service excellent and his rates very reasonable. Contact Michael's Mini-Buses, 180 Ravenscroft Road, Beckenham, Kent. Telephone 01-778 4194.

SPEEDWAY GALORE

There's no speedway here next week, but there are no less than five fixtures which will interest Wimbledon supporters before the "Dons" return here on Thursday May 27 (or possibly Tuesday, May 25). This Saturday Wimbledon travel to Halifax. On Sunday Ipswich stage a World Team Cup qualifying round. On Wednesday, the World Championship British semi-final takes place at the White City and the following day, next Thursday, Wimbledon race at Sheffield. To top this lot, Wimbledon go to Leicester on Tuesday, May 25. We shall be running coaches to all these matches and bookings will be taken in the grandstand kiosk after tonight's meeting, or telephone 01-660 8891.
